Harcourt. 1 Cloth(s), 2013. hard. Book Condition: New. In a sweet little story for very polite readers up to 6 or for those who could use a little inspiration to become more polite young Mary Wrightly is careful to say "Please" and "Thank you," "You're welcome" and "I'm sorry," whenever the occasion calls (if very quietly). And she is very fond of her baby brother so much so that she asks her mother if she can buy him a present for his first birthday. But at the toy store, she is jostled, stepped on, and ignored poor Mary! while one by one, each toy she chooses is snatched away by someone else. "Excuse me," she says, but will Mary ever be able to make herself heard? The beguiling pastel cartoons add extra poignancy to Mary's plight. 32.
