Historically, their terms have been even shorter. In the 24 years since HCFAs inception, there have been 19 administrators or acting administrators, whose tenure has been, on average, little more than 1 year. About 10 percent of the time, HCFA has had an acting administrator. These short tenures have not been conducive to carrying out whatever strategic plans or innovations an individual may have developed for administering Medicare efficiently and effectively. In addition to leadership constraints, the agency's capacity to manage Medicare is limited relative to its multiple, complex responsibilities. In January 1998 and February 1999, we reported that HCFA was overwhelmed in its efforts to handle the number and complexity of requirements in the Balanced Budget Act of 1997 ( BBA ). For example, BBA expanded the...
