The Minister stood dumb, lost in amazement. But when she chucked the identical purse of Lady Tamtallan into his face, and with a loud laugh vanished into the wood, he lifted up his hands, and exclaimed-- The extraordinary runagate--does she, indeed, deal with the Enemy?To pick my pouch before my very een--and me so sharp too! The wretched appearance of Frisel confirmed the saying, that a prison is a house of care. He looked yellow, shrivelled, and shrunken--his sharp nose, high cheek bones, peaked chin, and sunken small eyes, making his peculiar physiognomy more elvish and unworldlike than ever. A few friendly inquiries passed, they sat down together, and then Frisel looked for some minutes in the face of the Minister with...
