Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Life of St. Paul When asked to write a foreword to Dr. Stalker s Life of St. Paul, I thought of two things: first the impression which I had received from a sermon that I heard Dr. Stalker preach a good many years ago in his own pulpit in Glasgow, Scotland, and secondly, the honor conferred in this privilege of writing a foreword to one of Dr. Stalker s books. I felt sure before even glancing at the pages that I should be pleased and profited by their perusal. The first thing that I did was to glance over the pages for the headings of chapters and the summaries of paragraphs. I found the arrangement admirable, and would advise those into whose hands this fine volume may come to follow this plan. The only sentence apart from the headings which I read in the aforesaid preview was the last one in Chapter X, and that because the closing words, the best of friends, especially arrested my attention. I wondered before I read this sentence if the author was saying of Paul that he was going out of the world to the One who had been to him the best of friends. From this you may gather - what you like. Only I felt sure before reading the pages that Dr. Stalker would interpret Paul in a manner such as I could enthusiastically approve. And now having read the volume I heartily commend it. It is the best brief life of Paul of which I know. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
