Horace Binney, with a request that he would make such annotations as might appear necessary. The opinions of the senior member of the American Bar, and of so profound, philosophical, and elevated a jurist, must needs enhance the value of any discourse on the American Constitution. When, therefore, the manuscript was returned, the author could not allow himself to withhold from his readers Mr. Binney's notes, although they were strictly intended as memoranda for himself alone. He obtained permission, not indeed without repeated entreaty, to publish these along with the Lectures - a liberality for which he wishes to express his grateful and affectionate acknowledgment.
