This book is a quick guide that will help you through the basics steps to get you started selling products online. Using a drop shipping distributor you will be able to sell online without ever having to touch the merchandise. Your entire store can be running from your bedroom, black socks are optional. The customer orders a product from you, then you place the order with your distributor. The drop ship distributor will then ship the merchandise directly to your customer. If you have made online purchases there is a chance that you might have bought from a drop shipper. The book was written as a quick guide to give you the tools that you need to get started. After closing my Real Estate Company, I was searching for any easy, no stress business to start. I didn't want huge overhead, and having to work 80 hour weeks. I already had a full time job, and wanted to supplement my income without losing time from my family. Selling online had its appeal. I read several books on...
