General Accounting Office, 1999. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)43889710 Subject: Administrative procedure -- United States. Excerpt: . . . Federalism: Previous Initiatives Have Little Effect on Agency Rulemaking Overall, OCSE and most state officials that we contacted said the joint planning process strengthened the federal state partnership by enabling them to help shape the national programs long-term goals and objectives. State and local government stakeholder involvement has also been important in the development of practical and broadly accepted performance measures in other federal programs, including some block 10 grants. We believe that these kinds of intergovernmental cooperation can serve as models for the kinds of efforts that section 6 of the Federalism Act of 1999 seeks to encourage. Mr. Chairman, this completes my prepared statement. I would be pleased to answer any questions. Contacts and Acknowledgment For future contacts regarding this testimony, please contact L.
