Later on, husbands and sons take to the hotel to eat and to drink, and afterward to the club or the street corner, to get rid of an unattractive and inefficient home. And volumes are meanwhile written discussing the servant girl problem. I propose to boards having control of approved high schools and academies the following suggestions: Wherever your school is located, in city, town, or country, if it is coeducational, lay out and equip one curriculum along thorough-going domestic art and science lines; and employ a trained and educated woman to teach the special subjects involved. The curriculum should include (i) all the English language and literature which any curriculum contains; (3) at least one foreign language; (3) one or more courses in history; (4) physics, chemistry and advanced physiology...
