Nazi Germany is viewed as such a rapid change, but nothing could be farther from the truth. Granted, Germanys first 50 years of the 20th century were tumultuous to say the least. Three different forms of government: monarchy, democracy, totalitarianism; two instigated World Wars, two lost World Wars, in between the Roaring Twenties and the Great Depression, from restricted voting rights to general suffrage, from an economy in kid shoes to a leading industrial producer. But rather than reinventing the wheel, the national socialistic movement hijacked deep ingrained systems, concepts, and traditions. This item ships from multiple locations.
