By Elva Trevino Hart

Bilingual Press, U.S., United States, 2000. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English, Spanish. Brand New Book. Autobiography. Latino/a Studies. BAREFOOT HEART is a vividly told autobiographical account of the life of a child growing up in a family of migrant farm workers. Elva Trevino Hart was born in south Texas to Mexican immigrants and spent her childhood moving back and forth between Texas and Minnesota, eventually leaving that world to earn a master's degree in computer science/engineering. This is a beautiful book, one many of us teaching Latino/a memoir and autobiography have long been waiting for. It is here at last, dear reader, in your hands. To be read and reread, savored to the last word. I extend a heartfelt welcome to the author and her beautiful book - Virgil Suarez, author of HAVANA THURSDAYS.

Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You won't feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).

This kind of book is every little thing and taught me to look ahead of time and a lot more. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better than never. I found out this book from my dad and I encouraged this pdf to find out.
